Chapter I
Organizational matters

A. Membership

1. Pursuant to General Assembly resolution 43/222 B, in 2016 the Committee on Conferences was composed of the following Member States: Austria, Bahrain, the Central African Republic, France, Germany, Ghana, Hungary, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Jamaica, Japan, Liberia, Mauritania, Namibia, Paraguay, Qatar, the Russian Federation, Sri Lanka, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States of America.[1]

B. Officers

2. At its organizational session for 2016 (541st meeting), held on 25 April 2016, and at the opening of the substantive session (542nd meeting), held on 6 September 2016, the Committee elected the following officers to serve in 2016:

Chair:

Katalin Annamária Bogyay (Hungary)

Vice-Chairs:

Hayfa Ali Ahmed Matar (Bahrain)
Aba Ayebi-Arthur (Ghana)
Carolyn Strainic (United States of America)

Rapporteur:

Marcelo Eliseo Scappini Ricciardi (Paraguay)

3. Also at its organizational session, the Committee agreed in principle that the Chair would undertake informal consultations with a view to determining the composition of its Bureau for 2017 and that the outgoing Chair and members of the Bureau would continue in their capacity until the 2017 Bureau was elected.

C. Organization of work

4. At its organizational session, the Committee agreed to follow the guidelines adopted in 1994 and 1995 with regard to its consideration of intersessional departures from the approved calendar of conferences and meetings and to meet, as required, to review proposals affecting the schedule of conferences and meetings during sessions of the General Assembly.

5. At the same session, the Committee reviewed the proposed strategic framework for the period 2018-2019, programme 1, General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management (A/71/6 (Prog. 1)). The Under-Secretary-General for General Assembly and Conference Management addressed the Committee and introduced the proposed strategic framework. Representatives of the Secretariat answered questions raised by the delegations of Austria, France,

[1] Two seats from the Latin American and Caribbean States have remained vacant since the seventieth session of the General Assembly (see A/70/107 and A/AC.172/2016/INF/1).

Paraguay, the Russian Federation, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States of America. The recommendations of the Committee were transmitted in a letter dated 19 May 2016 from the Chair of the Committee on Conferences to the Chair of the Committee for Programme and Coordination and were included in a conference room paper on the review of part two of the proposed strategic framework for the period 2018-2019: biennial programme plan, by sectoral, functional and regional bodies (see E/AC.51/2016/CRP.1/Rev.1, annex).

6. The Committee held its substantive session from 6 to 13 September 2016 (542nd to 546th meetings). At the opening of the substantive session, on 6 September, the Under-Secretary-General introduced the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences (A/71/116). During the formal meetings, statements were made by the representatives of Austria, France, Japan, the Russian Federation, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States of America.

D. Programme of work

7. At its organizational session for 2015 (536th meeting), held on 22 April 2015, the Committee requested that the Secretariat submit the provisional agenda for 2016 to the Committee at its organizational session for 2016. At its organizational session for 2016 (541st meeting), held on 25 April 2016, the Committee adopted the provisional agenda (A/AC.172/2016/L.1) and requested that the Secretariat submit a provisional agenda for 2017 to the Committee at its organizational session for 2017. Subsequently, following the issuance of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences (A/71/116), containing a strategically oriented and streamlined structure, a revised agenda for 2016 was adopted at the 542nd meeting, held on 6 September 2016 (A/AC.172/2016/1/Rev.1). The Committee also decided to include in its programme of work for the year, prior to the Committee's substantive session or upon request, informal briefings by the Secretariat on issues of interest to Member States relating to conference management.

E. Participation of observers

8. One Member State, Germany, and one intergovernmental organization, the European Union, were represented as observers at the organizational session of the Committee. Three Member States, namely, Cuba, Israel and Kenya, were represented as observers at the substantive session.

Chapter II
Calendar of conferences and meetings

A. Adoption of the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings for 2017

9. At its 542nd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee reviewed and adopted the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 2017 (A/AC.172/2016/L.2).

Discussion

10. Several delegations expressed the view that the second part of the resumed session of the Fifth Committee should be extended in the light of past trends in conference-service usage to enable the Committee to complete its work and thereby ensure the full participation of all stakeholders. Several other delegations expressed concern that a number of other intergovernmental bodies extended their meetings beyond the allocated time frame. Another view was expressed that the failure of an intergovernmental body to conclude its negotiations in the allotted time did not justify amending the calendar of conferences, that the scheduling of additional meetings would have financial implications and that such amendments must take into account the working methods and reporting arrangements of the bodies concerned. A representative of the Secretariat said that it had not previously been the practice of the Committee on Conferences to comment on the session dates of other bodies without consulting them. After extensive discussion, the Committee did not reach agreement on the proposal and consequently several delegations reserved their right to raise the issue in other intergovernmental bodies.

B. Requests for exceptions to section I, paragraph 7, of General Assembly resolution 40/243

11. At its 542nd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the sections of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences (A/71/116, sect. II.A.2, and supplementary information,[2] sect. I.A) containing requests for exceptions to section I, paragraph 7, of General Assembly resolution 40/243, by which the Assembly decided that no subsidiary organ of the Assembly might meet at United Nations Headquarters during a regular session of the Assembly unless explicitly authorized by the Assembly.

Conclusions and recommendations

12. The Committee recommended that the General Assembly explicitly authorize the following bodies to meet in New York during the main part of its seventy-first session, on the understanding that all such meetings would be allocated conference services on an "as available" basis, in such a way that the work of the Assembly and its Main Committees would not be impeded:

(a) Committee on Relations with the Host Country;

[2] See http://coc.dgacm.org/2016/Documents/2016_Supplementary_Information.pdf.

(b) Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People;

(c) Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund;

(d) United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination;

(e) Panel of External Auditors of the United Nations, the Specialized Agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency;

(f) Board of Auditors;

(g) Independent Audit Advisory Committee;

(h) United Nations Appeals Tribunal;

(i) Committee on Conferences.

C. Intersessional departures

13. The General Assembly, in its resolution 70/9, approved the draft biennial calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 2016 and 2017, as submitted by the Committee, and authorized the Committee to make any adjustments that might become necessary as a result of actions and decisions taken by the Assembly at its seventieth session. The calendar was issued as A/AC.172/2016/2 and Corr.1.

14. The Committee approved the following requests:

(a) Request from the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions to extend the duration of one of the meetings of its fall session of 2015 outside regular meeting hours;

(b) Request from the Advisory Committee to extend the duration of three of its meetings during its winter session outside regular meeting hours;

(c) Requests from the Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters to convene its sixty-fifth and sixty-seventh sessions, from 27 to 29 January 2016, and from 25 to 27 January 2017, in Geneva rather than New York;

(d) Request from the Commission on the Status of Women for an additional meeting during its sixtieth session;

(e) Request from the Chairs of the human rights treaty bodies to change the venue of their twenty-eighth annual meeting, in May and June 2016, from Geneva to New York;

(f) Request from the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention to change the venue of its seventy-fifth session, in April 2016, from Geneva to New York;

(g) Request from the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples to convene one additional meeting to adopt two outstanding draft resolutions and conclude its resumed session for 2016.

Chapter III
Meetings management

A. Analysis of utilization of conference-servicing resources and facilities

15. At its 542nd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee on Conferences considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences containing an analysis of the utilization of conference-servicing resources by United Nations organs (A/71/116, paras. 12-19, 77 and 80 (b), and supplementary information,[2] sect. II).

16. The Committee also heard a report by the Chair on the consultations held with the intergovernmental bodies whose utilization rate had fallen below the 80 per cent benchmark over the past three years, namely, the Committee on Information, the Second Committee and the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund. As a result of those efforts, the Chair of the Committee on Information had agreed to recommend that its need for formal meetings should be reviewed and had acknowledged the importance of beginning meetings on time in order to improve the utilization rate. The staff of the Secretariat supporting the Second Committee received training in conference-servicing policies and its Secretary would coordinate the scheduling of its closing meeting with the Meetings Management Section. The Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund had achieved a utilization rate of 90 per cent at its June 2016 session by reducing the number of its meetings and would further improve its efficiency in the light of past utilization patterns.

B. Provision of interpretation services to meetings of bodies entitled to meet "as required"

17. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the provision of interpretation services to meetings of bodies entitled to meet "as required" (A/71/116, paras. 20 and 73, and supplementary information,[2] sect. III).

C. Provision of interpretation services to meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States

18. Also at the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the provision of interpretation services to meetings of regional and other major groups of Member States (A/71/116, paras. 21-23, and supplementary information,[2] sect. IV).

D. Meetings held away from established headquarters

19. Also at its 542nd meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning meetings held away from established headquarters (A/71/116, paras. 24-26).

E. Utilization of conference facilities at the United Nations Office at Nairobi

20. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the utilization of conference facilities at the United Nations Office at Nairobi (A/71/116, para. 27).

F. Utilization of the conference centre at the Economic Commission for Africa

21. Also at the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the utilization of the conference centre at the Economic Commission for Africa (A/71/116, annex). The Committee decided that the matter would remain under its consideration.

Discussion

22. In response to a question from a delegation, a representative of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management stated that the Department was not responsible for the financial and human resources and operations of conference services at the regional commissions, but shared information on conference management policy with them.

G. Summary records, verbatim records and digital recordings

23. Also at its 542nd meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning summary records, verbatim records and digital recordings (A/71/116, paras. 29-30).

Chapter IV
Documents management

24. At its 542nd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee on Conferences considered the sections of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning matters related to documents management (see A/71/116, paras. 31-42, 74, 78 and 80 (c) and (d), and supplementary information,[2] sects. VI and VII.B and C).

Discussion

25. A delegation sought information regarding external factors leading to the recurrent late submission of documents by author departments and measures for improving their compliance with the deadlines for submitting slotted documents. A representative of the Secretariat said that reasons provided by author departments for late submission included the need for reports to reflect recent developments, the need to include information from back-to-back sessions, delays in the submission of inputs from Member States, challenges in coordinating inputs from various author entities, the increased number of mandated reports and a shortage of human resources with which to produce them, the need for more time to clarify highly technical and financial information and the need to conduct consultations on politically sensitive matters. Compliance with the submission deadlines had improved over the years as a result of the inclusion of 90 per cent submission compliance as a performance indicator in the annual compacts between senior managers and the Secretary-General, the inclusion of the status of documentation as a standing item on the agenda of the Management Committee and the work of the interdepartmental task force on documentation. The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management worked closely with author departments, including by sending document service reports to intergovernmental bodies as a way of identifying room for improvement.

26. A delegation expressed concern that word limits were being imposed on submissions from Member States. Representatives of the Secretariat explained that word limits applied only to reports originating in the Secretariat. Member States were invited to follow guidelines on the length of submissions in order to enable the Department to produce workload forecasts for capacity planning purposes and process documents in a timely manner.

27. A delegation asked what had been done to apply common standards for the quality control of documents processed by external translators, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 70/9. A representative of the Secretariat said that in New York all documents translated externally were now subject to quality control. The tools used by in-house translators, in particular the eLUNa computer-assisted translation system, had been made available to external translators in order to enhance quality, accuracy, consistency and the use of official terminology.

28. In response to questions from a delegation, a representative of the Secretariat said that the global terminology portal, the United Nations Terminology Reference System (UNTERM), was actively used by staff, delegates and the public and was the official repository of United Nations terminology. The Department was working with United Nations agencies and international organizations to add their terminology resources to the portal.

Chapter V

Leveraging technology to increase efficiency

29. At its 543rd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning leveraging technology to increase efficiency (A/71/116, paras. 44-49 and 74).

Chapter VI
Staffing

30. At its 543rd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the sections of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning matters relating to staffing (A/71/116, paras. 50-64 and 75-76, and supplementary information,[2] sect. VIII).

Discussion

31. A delegation requested information on the results of the in-house training programmes conducted in New York for potential Arabic and French interpreters. A representative of the Secretariat said that a number of trainees had already passed language competitive examinations or freelance tests for interpreters. Similar programmes could be arranged for potential recruits to the other interpretation booths, as necessary.

32. A delegation sought clarification concerning the basis for the upgrading of 11 language posts at the United Nations Office at Nairobi. A representative of the Secretariat explained that the posts had been upgraded to meet the requests of Member States that the Secretary-General provide appropriate quality control for the work of external translators, including respect for the principle of equal grade for equal work across duty stations.

33. Delegations commended the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management on its efforts to recruit language professionals from underrepresented regions, but expressed concern about the consequences of waiving the requirement for candidates to have at least three official languages. Representatives of the Department explained that the requirement remained in place for the Arabic, English, French and Russian services. Chinese translators had not been required to have three languages for some time. Candidates with only two languages had been allowed to sit the 2016 language competitive examination for Spanish translators as a temporary measure to diversify the contingent of language staff. Half of the 5,000 candidates had been from Latin American and Caribbean States. The initiative was expected to increase the representation of Latin American varieties of Spanish within the Spanish Translation Service and to identify enough candidates to fill all vacant posts.

34. In response to a question from a delegation, a representative of the Department said that only one university in Latin America had signed a memorandum of understanding with the United Nations, as most did not meet the requirements. However, the Department had increased its outreach to universities in Latin America and the Caribbean and was planning to offer remote internships to translation students in the region.

35. A delegation sought information regarding the outposting of French translators from New York to Vienna. A representative of the Secretariat explained that two French translators had been outposted in August 2016, that a third would follow in November 2016 and that two posts would be filled with successful candidates from the language competitive examination.

Chapter VII
Improvement of facilities and accessibility

36. At its 543rd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the improvement of facilities and accessibility (A/71/116, paras. 65-67 and 79).

37. A delegation drew attention to recent General Assembly mandates relating to the accessibility of conference facilities to persons with disabilities. A representative of the Secretariat said that the Secretary-General would submit to the Third Committee at the seventy-first session of the General Assembly a report on the status of accessibility of facilities and services at the United Nations, including those improvements in accessibility achieved through the capital master plan, as a result of which the facilities in New York met or exceeded host-country standards.

38. Sign-language interpretation was provided under the regular budget only to the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and of the sessions of the Conference of the States parties to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. Otherwise, extrabudgetary resources were required to provide accessible services. The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management planned to harmonize the recruitment of sign-language interpreters across the duty stations.

39. Hearing and visually impaired persons could borrow equipment from the Accessibility Centre in New York, which was opened in 2013. The Republic of Korea had funded the equipment for the Centre and its maintenance, as well as the training of its staff. Thanks to a generous upgrade of the equipment provided by the Government of the Republic of Korea in 2016, an array of new devices are now available to the users of the Centre. Delegates, United Nations staff and visitors needing assistive devices can benefit from this donation. The Department invited all other Member States to provide similar donations to expand accessibility services at all duty stations.

Chapter VIII
Quality of conference services

40. At its 543rd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the quality of conference services (A/71/116, paras. 68-72, and supplementary information,[2] sect. VII.A).

Chapter IX
Organization of work

41. At its 543rd meeting, on 6 September 2016, the Committee considered the procedures for the participation of observers in the work of the Committee, pursuant to section II.A, paragraph 20, of General Assembly resolution 57/283 B, and agreed to keep them under continued review.

Annex I

Draft resolution

The Committee on Conferences recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Pattern of conferences

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions on the pattern of conferences, including resolution 70/9 of 13 November 2015,

Recalling also its previous resolutions on multilingualism, and reaffirming the provisions relating to conference services thereon, in particular resolution 69/324 of 11 September 2015,

Reaffirming its resolution 42/207 C of 11 December 1987, in which it requested the Secretary-General to ensure the equal treatment of the official languages of the United Nations,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Conferences for 2016[1] and the relevant report of the Secretary-General,[2]

Reaffirming the role of the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly in administrative and budgetary matters,

Recalling its resolution 14 (I) of 13 February 1946 and the role of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions as a subsidiary body of the General Assembly,

I

Calendar of conferences and meetings

1. Welcomes the report of the Committee on Conferences for 2016;[1]

2. Approves the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 2017, as submitted by the Committee on Conferences,[3] taking into account the observations of the Committee and subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

3. Authorizes the Committee on Conferences to make any adjustments to the revised calendar of conferences and meetings for 2017 that may become necessary as a result of actions and decisions taken by the General Assembly at its seventy-first session;

4. Notes with satisfaction that the Secretariat has taken into account the arrangements referred to in General Assembly resolutions 53/208 A of 18 December 1998, 54/248 of 23 December 1999, 55/222 of 23 December 2000, 56/242 of

[3] See Official Records of the General Assembly, Seventy-first Session, Supplement No. 32 (A/71/32), annex II.

24 December 2001, 57/283 B of 15 April 2003, 58/250 of 23 December 2003, 59/265 of 23 December 2004, 60/236 A of 23 December 2005, 61/236 of 22 December 2006, 62/225 of 22 December 2007, 63/248 of 24 December 2008, 64/230 of 22 December 2009, 65/245 of 24 December 2010, 66/233 of 24 December 2011, 67/237 of 24 December 2012 and 68/251 of 27 December 2013 concerning Orthodox Good Friday and the official holidays of Eid al Fitr and Eid al Adha, and requests all intergovernmental bodies to observe those decisions when planning their meetings;

5. Also notes with satisfaction that the Secretariat has taken into account the arrangements referred to in relevant resolutions of the General Assembly regarding the pattern of conferences, including resolution 69/250 of 29 December 2014 concerning Yom Kippur, the Day of Vesak, Diwali, Gurpurab and Orthodox Christmas, and requests all relevant intergovernmental bodies to continue to observe the applicable decisions when planning their meetings;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that any modification to the calendar of conferences and meetings is implemented strictly in accordance with the mandate of the Committee on Conferences and other relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

7. Invites Member States to include in new legislative mandates adequate information on the modalities for the organization of conferences or meetings;

8. Recalls rule 153 of its rules of procedure, and, for resolutions involving expenditure, requests the Secretary-General to include the modalities of conferences, taking into account the trends of similar meetings, with a view to mobilizing conference services and documentation in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible;

9. Reaffirms the need to address the issue of duplications and redundancies in conference servicing, and notes in this regard that the Economic and Social Council decided, in its resolution 2013/13 of 22 July 2013, to consider at a later date the necessity of reviewing its provisional biennial calendar of conferences and meetings in the light of the ongoing intergovernmental consultations on the further strengthening of the Council;

II
Utilization of conference-servicing resources

10. Reaffirms the practice that, in the use of conference rooms, priority must be given to meetings of Member States;

11. Calls upon the Secretary-General and Member States to adhere to the guidelines and procedures contained in the administrative instruction for the authorization of the use of United Nations premises for meetings, conferences, special events and exhibits;[4]

12. Emphasizes that such meetings, conferences, special events and exhibits must be consistent with the purposes and principles of the United Nations;

[4] ST/AI/416.

13. Notes that the overall utilization factor for all calendar bodies at the four main duty stations in 2015 was 80 per cent, as it was in 2014, as compared with 78 per cent in 2013, and thus met the established benchmark of 80 per cent;

14. Requests the Committee on Conferences to consult those bodies that have consistently utilized less than the applicable benchmark of their allocated resources for the past six years, with a view to making appropriate recommendations in order to achieve the optimum utilization of conference-servicing resources;

15. Urges the secretariats and bureaux of bodies that underutilize their conference-servicing resources to work more closely with the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management of the Secretariat and to consider changes to their programmes of work, as appropriate, including adjustments based on previous patterns of recurring agenda items, with a view to making improvements in their utilization factors;

16. Urges those intergovernmental bodies whose average utilization factor has for the past six years been below the benchmark of 80 per cent to take that factor into account when planning their future sessions in order to achieve that benchmark;

17. Reiterates its request to intergovernmental bodies to review their meeting entitlements and to plan and adjust their programmes of work on the basis of their actual utilization of conference-servicing resources in order to improve their efficient use of conference services;

18. Recognizes that late starts and unplanned early endings seriously affect the utilization factor of the bodies owing to the amount of time lost, and invites the secretariats and bureaux of bodies to pay adequate attention to avoiding late starts and unplanned early endings;

19. Welcomes the steps taken by those bodies that have adjusted their programmes of work in order to achieve the optimum utilization of conference-servicing resources;

20. Also welcomes the efforts undertaken by the Secretary-General to increase the utilization rates of conference-servicing resources, and in this regard encourages the Secretary-General to enhance the efficiency of conference servicing and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

21. Requests the Secretary-General to consult Member States on initiatives that affect the utilization of conference services and conference facilities;

22. Notes that for meetings held in New York of bodies entitled to meet "as required", 97 per cent of requests for interpretation were met in 2015, as compared with 97 per cent in 2014 and 98 per cent in 2013, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to impress upon such bodies the need to continue to improve the utilization of the conference services provided and to report on the provision of conference services to those bodies through the Committee on Conferences;

23. Recognizes the importance of meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States for the smooth functioning of the sessions of intergovernmental bodies, requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, as far as possible, all requests for conference services for the meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States are met, and requests the Secretariat to inform the requesters as early as possible about the availability of conference services, including interpretation, as well as about any changes that might occur before the holding of meetings;

24. Notes that the percentage of meetings held by regional and other major groupings of Member States that were provided with interpretation services at the four main duty stations was 83 per cent in 2015, as compared with 85 per cent in 2014 and 93 per cent in 2013, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to employ innovative means to address the difficulties experienced by Member States owing to the lack of conference services for some meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States and to report thereon to the General Assembly through the Committee on Conferences;

25. Once again urges intergovernmental bodies to spare no effort at the planning stage to take into account the meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States, to make provision for such meetings in their programmes of work and to notify conference services, well in advance, of any cancellations so that unutilized conference-servicing resources may, to the extent possible, be reassigned to meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States;

26. Welcomes the efforts of all users of conference services to inform the Secretariat as early as possible of any cancellation of service requests so as to allow for such services to be smoothly redeployed to other meetings;

27. Notes with satisfaction that, in accordance with several resolutions of the General Assembly, including resolution 70/9, paragraph 23, in conformity with the headquarters rule, all meetings of Nairobi-based United Nations bodies were held in Nairobi in 2015, and requests the Secretary-General to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-second session through the Committee on Conferences;

28. Notes the ongoing efforts aimed at improving the conference facilities at the Economic Commission for Africa, and in this regard encourages the Secretary-General to ensure that the improvement of the facilities, in particular Africa Hall, is completed in a timely manner;

29. Recognizes the improvement in the rate of utilization of the conference centre of the Economic Commission for Africa, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to continue to explore, including with partners such as the African Union, additional means to increase the utilization of the conference centre and to report thereon, including on the impact of the initiatives of the Commission, to the General Assembly;

30. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to encourage the heads of entities of the United Nations system to use as a matter of priority, when applicable, the conference centre of the Economic Commission for Africa to ensure greater utilization of the conference facilities;

31. Recognizes the proactive efforts of the Secretary-General to identify ways to enhance efficiency and effectiveness in conference services;

32. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts aimed at improving conference servicing at the four main duty stations, including through addressing or eliminating possible duplication, overlap and redundancy, and identifying innovative ideas, potential synergies and other cost-saving measures, without compromising quality or affecting the provision of services, and to report annually on the progress made in this regard;

33. Re-emphasizes the need to continue to improve all conference facilities, including the videoconferencing infrastructure, at all four main duty stations and at the regional commissions, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to report thereon no later than at the seventy-second session of the General Assembly;

34. Welcomes the measures taken to ensure access to and use of conference services and conference facilities for persons with disabilities, including the establishment of the Accessibility Centre, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue further efforts in this regard and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

35. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to address issues related to the accessibility of conference facilities as a matter of priority and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

36. Welcomes the integrated global management rule as an efficient approach, where feasible, to servicing meetings away from duty stations, in this regard requests the Secretary-General to strengthen his efforts to realize further savings by rigorously applying the integrated global management rule to applicable meetings, without jeopardizing the quality of services, and to report thereon to the Committee on Conferences at its substantive session in 2017, and also requests the Secretary-General to continue to report on the financial savings achieved through the implementation of the integrated global management projects;

III
Leveraging technology and measuring the quality of conference services

37. Notes with appreciation the efforts of the Secretary-General in the context of the integrated global management initiative to establish and implement at the four main duty stations common performance indicators and single information technology systems (such as gData, gDoc, gMeets and gText), and requests the Secretary-General to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

38. Takes note of the progress made in the development and implementation of the conference management software gData, gDoc, gMeets and gText, and requests the Secretary-General to include all relevant information on their operation, maintenance and harmonization with existing systems, as appropriate, in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2018-2019;

39. Recalls paragraph 24 of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences,[5] and requests the Secretary-General to complete internal reviews concerning accountability mechanisms and the clear delineation of responsibility between the Under-Secretary-General for General Assembly and Conference Management and the Directors-General of the United Nations Offices at Geneva, Nairobi and Vienna for conference management policies, operations and resource utilization, requests the Secretary-General to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session, and in this regard recalls section III, paragraph 15, of its resolution 66/233, section III, paragraph 2, of its resolution 67/237, paragraph 38 of its resolution 68/251, paragraph 48 of its resolution 69/250 and paragraph 37 of resolution 70/9;

40. Notes the initiatives undertaken in the context of integrated global management aimed at streamlining procedures, achieving economies of scale and improving the quality of conference services, and in this regard stresses the importance of ensuring the equal treatment of conference-servicing staff, as well as the principle of equal grade for equal work at the four main duty stations;

41. Reiterates that the satisfaction of Member States is a key performance indicator in conference management and conference services;

42. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure that measures taken by the Department to seek the evaluation by Member States of the quality of the conference services provided to them, as a key performance indicator of the Department, provide equal opportunities to Member States to present their evaluations in the six official languages of the United Nations and are in full compliance with relevant resolutions of the General Assembly, and further requests the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly, through the Committee on Conferences, on progress made in this regard;

43. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to explore best practices and techniques in client satisfaction evaluations, to seek a larger rate of response to surveys on quality and to report regularly to the General Assembly on the results achieved;

44. Welcomes the efforts made by the Department to seek the evaluation by Member States of the quality of the conference services provided to them, taking into consideration comments and complaints raised by Member States either in writing or during meetings, and requests the Secretary-General to intensify his exploration of innovative ways to systematically capture and analyse feedback from Member States and Chairs and Secretaries of committees on the quality of conference services and to report thereon to the General Assembly through the Committee on Conferences;

45. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to seek evaluation of the quality of the conference services provided by the Secretariat through meetings held at least once a year, but not exceeding twice a year, guaranteeing that Member States are able to present their evaluations and seek information equally in any of the six official languages of the United Nations on any conference-related or language-specific matter;

46. Acknowledges that the concept of integrated global management has been fully mainstreamed into all areas of the conference services across the four main conference-servicing duty stations, and requests the Secretary-General to keep the General Assembly and its Committee on Conferences apprised of progress made in ensuring integrated global management and to provide accurate and up-to-date information on new initiatives falling under the purview of the Committee;

IV
Matters related to documentation and publications

47. Emphasizes the paramount importance of the equality of the six official languages of the United Nations;

48. Underlines that all the initiatives on the evolution of the working methods, including those introduced on a trial basis, shall comply with the principle of parity among the official languages of the Organization, with a view to preserving or enhancing the quality and scope of the services provided by the Secretariat;

49. Emphasizes the importance of multilingualism in the activities of the United Nations, and requests the Secretary-General to redouble his efforts to ensure full parity among the six official languages in accordance with General Assembly resolution 69/324 and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-second session;

50. Recalls paragraph 69 of its resolution 69/250, welcomes the appointment of the Under-Secretary-General for General Assembly and Conference Management as the Coordinator for Multilingualism, responsible for the overall implementation of multilingualism Secretariat-wide, and emphasizes the need for the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat to continue to inform the public about the importance of this principle;

51. Emphasizes that multilingualism, as a core value of the Organization, entails the active involvement and commitment of all stakeholders, including all United Nations duty stations and offices away from Headquarters;

52. Recalls paragraph 69 of its resolution 69/250, and requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its seventy-first session detailed terms of reference for the Coordinator for Multilingualism containing, inter alia, key responsibilities, working modalities, tasks, priorities, a programme of work, reporting lines and anticipated support, in full compliance with relevant provisions of Assembly resolutions;

53. Reaffirms its decision, in section IV of its resolution 64/230, that all reports adopted by the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review of the Human Rights Council shall be issued as documents in all official languages of the United Nations in a timely manner before their consideration by the Council, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 36/117 A of 10 December 1981, 51/211 A to E of 18 December 1996, 52/214 of 22 December 1997, 53/208 A to E of 18 December 1998 and 59/265, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the support necessary to that effect and to report to the Assembly thereon at its seventy-second session;

54. Recalls section III, paragraph 5, of its resolution 55/222, and reiterates with concern its request that the Secretary-General ensure strict respect for the rules concerning the simultaneous distribution of documents in all six official languages as regards both the distribution of printed copies and the posting of parliamentary documentation on the Official Document System and the United Nations website;

55. Stresses that matters related to conference management, including documentation, fall within the purview of the Fifth Committee;

56. Reiterates the importance of the timely issuance of documents for the Fifth Committee;

57. Welcomes the efforts made by the Secretariat, in particular the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management, regarding the timely availability of pre-session documentation for the Fifth Committee in the six official languages of the United Nations, and encourages continued efforts by all stakeholders in this regard;

58. Takes note of the work done by the interdepartmental task force on documentation chaired by the Department in positively addressing the problem of issuance of documents for the Fifth Committee;

59. Welcomes the continued efforts of the task force to shepherd the submission of documents by the author departments of the Secretariat;

60. Encourages the Chairs of the Fifth Committee and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions to continue to promote cooperation between the two bodies in the sphere of documentation;

61. Notes that accurate, timely and consistent information provided by the Secretariat to the Fifth Committee during its informal consultations facilitates the decision-making process in the Committee;

62. Also notes that the effects of workload-sharing in the context of global document management remain minimal, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to seek ways to promote workload-sharing among the four main duty stations and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

63. Emphasizes that the major goals of the Department are to provide high-quality documents in a timely manner in all official languages, in accordance with established regulations, as well as high-quality conference services to Member States at all duty stations, and to achieve those aims as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible, in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

64. Also emphasizes the importance of enhancing accountability within the Secretariat for the timely production and delivery of documents by ensuring that managers are fully informed of their responsibilities;

65. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to include in the senior managers' compacts the new standard managerial indicator related to the timely issuance of official documentation to intergovernmental bodies and General Assembly committees and to report thereon in future progress reports on accountability;

66. Also requests the Secretary-General to include in the relevant sections of future budget proposals, under executive direction and management, an expected accomplishment of the Secretariat related to the timely submission of documentation needed for meetings of relevant intergovernmental bodies;

67. Notes with satisfaction that 99 per cent of the documents submitted on time and within the word limit were processed within four weeks by the Department at Headquarters, and stresses the importance of all the duty stations taking measures to reach their targets in this regard;

68. Reaffirms its decision in section III, paragraph 9, of its resolution 59/265 that the issuance of documents in all six official languages on planning, budgetary and administrative matters requiring urgent consideration by the General Assembly shall be accorded priority;

69. Reiterates its request that the Secretary-General direct all departments of the Secretariat to include the following elements in their reports:

(a) A summary of the report;

(b) Consolidated conclusions, recommendations and other proposed actions;

(c) Relevant background information;

70. Reiterates its request that all documents submitted to legislative organs, including the Committee on Conferences, by the Secretariat and intergovernmental and expert bodies for consideration and action have conclusions and recommendations in bold print;

71. Notes with concern that only 72 per cent of the author departments reached the compliance rate of 90 per cent in the timely submission of their reports to the Department, and reiterates its request that the Secretary-General enforce the slotting system more rigorously through a dedicated focus, such as the interdepartmental task force on documentation, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

72. Urges author departments to fully adhere to deadlines in meeting the goal of 90 per cent submission compliance, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that documents submitted late do not adversely affect the issuance of documents submitted on time and in compliance with set guidelines;

73. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to report to the General Assembly on concrete measures taken by author departments and the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management to improve the predictability of document delivery and ensure accountability for the meeting of deadlines in order to ensure the timely issuance of documentation;

74. Reiterates its request in paragraph 80 of its resolution 70/9 that the Secretary-General provide information on the waiver process for documents that are submitted over the word limit;

75. Emphasizes the role of Member States and their intergovernmental bodies in determining the policies on conference management;

76. Stresses that proposals to change such policies are to be approved by Member States in their relevant intergovernmental bodies;

77. Notes that the Official Document System is the official digital repository of the United Nations, and welcomes its modernization and its accessibility in all six official languages of the United Nations;

78. Notes with encouragement the ongoing efforts related to the technological advancement aimed at improving the accessibility of the Official Document System, including the introduction of a portable Official Document System, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts in this regard;

79. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts aimed at improving the deployment of technological tools and facilities in conference servicing with a view to facilitating the decision-making process by intergovernmental bodies;

80. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to upload all important older United Nations documents onto the United Nations website in all six official languages on a priority basis so that these archives will also be available to Member States and the general public;

81. Further requests the Secretary-General to take all measures necessary to ensure that the digitization of key documents in the Dag Hammarskjöld Library and in the main duty stations is completed in a timely manner, as appropriate;

82. Recalls paragraph 86 of its resolution 70/9, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to entrust the Department of Public Information to present a proposal for the digitization of important older United Nations documents at all four main duty stations for consideration by the General Assembly through the Committee on Information no later than at the main part of its seventy-second session, outlining, inter alia, the definition of important older United Nations documents, as well as the scope and estimated quantity, cost and time frame;

83. Expresses concern that the anticipated lengthy digitization project may jeopardize the retention of historical knowledge and information in view of the delicate state and risk of breakage of many of the related documents;

84. Requests the Secretary-General to seek additional voluntary contributions for the digitization of important older United Nations documents, including by broadening the donor base, and to report thereon in the context of the report requested in paragraph 82 above;

85. Recalls paragraph 104 of its resolution 69/250, notes the increased use of digital recordings by other intergovernmental bodies, including the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to report to the General Assembly in this regard;

86. Stresses that verbatim and summary records remain the only official records of the meetings of United Nations bodies;

87. Reiterates paragraph 105 of its resolution 69/250;

88. Recalls paragraph 5 of its resolution 49/221 B of 23 December 1994, and stresses that the timely issuance of verbatim records constitutes an important part of the services provided to Member States;

V
Matters related to language services

89. Requests the Secretary-General to redouble his efforts to ensure the highest quality of interpretation and translation services in all six official languages;

90. Underlines that the translation of official documents of the Organization must be provided in all required languages and in due time, in full compliance with the rules of procedure of the respective legislative bodies;

91. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure that the terminology used in the translation and interpretation services reflects the latest linguistic norms and terminology of the official languages in order to ensure the highest quality;

92. Notes that the pool of language professionals at duty stations is uneven in terms of language combinations, and requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to develop recruitment, subcontracting and outreach policies that take full account of these imbalances and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

93. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all language services are given equal treatment and are provided with equally favourable working conditions and resources, with a view to achieving the maximum quality of services, with full respect for the specificities of the six official languages and taking into account their respective workloads;

94. Reiterates the need for the Secretary-General to ensure the compatibility of technologies used in all duty stations and to ensure that they are user-friendly in all official languages;

95. Notes the development of an experimental statistical machine translation system (Tapta4UN) to accelerate translation services for some categories of documents, and requests the Secretary-General to report on updates, including cost-benefit analysis and quality preservation and control, about this system to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session, through the Committee on Conferences;

96. Recalls section VII of its resolution 69/274 A of 2 April 2015, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the implementation of flexible workplace strategies takes into account the needs of language staff in order to continue to ensure that the services provided to Member States meet the highest standard of quality;

97. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to maintain and update the global terminology portal in order to ensure its availability to United Nations staff, Member States and the general public with a view to achieving harmonization of the terminology used at all United Nations duty stations;

98. Also requests the Secretary-General, as the Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to continue to invite the heads of participating funds, programmes and specialized agencies of the United Nations system to consider using official United Nations terminology and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

99. Reaffirms paragraph 98 of its resolution 70/9, and reiterates its request that the Secretary-General, when recruiting temporary assistance in the language services, including through the use of international or local contracts, as appropriate, ensure that all language services are given equal treatment and are provided with equally favourable working conditions and resources, with a view to achieving maximum quality of their services, with full respect for the specificities of each of the six official languages and taking into account their respective workloads;

100. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts aimed at decreasing the vacancy rates for language professionals at the United Nations Office at Nairobi and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

101. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to hold competitive examinations for the recruitment of language staff sufficiently in advance in order to fill current and future vacancies in the language services in a timely manner and to inform the General Assembly at its future sessions of efforts in this regard;

102. Further requests the Secretary-General to continue to make every effort to enhance access to competitive examinations for applicants in all regions by bringing, to the extent possible, examination sites closer to their locations in order to allow the greatest number of potentially qualified candidates to participate in them, and to report to the General Assembly at its future sessions on progress made in this regard;

103. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to improve the quality of translation of documents into the six official languages, giving particular significance to the accuracy of translation;

104. Reiterates paragraph 8 of the annex to resolution 2 (I) of 1 February 1946 on the rules of procedure concerning languages, whereby all resolutions and other important documents shall be made available in the official languages and, upon the request of any representative, any other document shall be made available in any or all of the official languages;

105. Stresses the need to ensure the highest possible quality of contractual and in-house translation, and requests the Secretary-General to report on measures to be taken in this regard;

106. Reiterates its request that the Secretary-General provide, at all duty stations, adequate staff at the appropriate level, with a view to ensuring appropriate quality control for external translation, with due consideration of the principle of equal grade for equal work;

107. Requests the Secretary-General to apply common standards for the quality control of documents processed by external translators in all four duty stations in order to ensure high-quality translations in the six official languages of the United Nations, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its future sessions;

108. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the experience, lessons learned and best practices of the main duty stations in performing quality control of contractual and in-house translations, including on requirements relating to the number and appropriate level of staff needed to carry out this function, are shared among duty stations and regional commissions, as appropriate;

109. Notes that the Secretary-General has established globally standardized performance indicators and costing models aimed at a more cost-effective strategy for the in-house processing of documents;

110. Notes with appreciation the measures taken by the Secretary-General, in accordance with its resolutions, to address, among other things, the issue of the replacement of retiring staff in the language services, and requests the Secretary-General to maintain and intensify those efforts, including the strengthening of cooperation with institutions that train language specialists, in order to meet the needs in the six official languages of the United Nations;

111. Notes the need for energetic measures to avoid a disruptive shortage of applicants and a high turnover rate in the language career fields, particularly where rare language combinations are involved, and requests the Secretary-General to use appropriate means to improve the internship programme, including through partnerships with organizations that promote the official languages of the United Nations;

112. Welcomes the existing memorandums of understanding between the Organization and 23 universities as a way to strengthen the training of language professionals in order to improve the recruitment of qualified language staff, and requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to assess the appropriate number of memorandums of understanding in order to fulfil the needs of the Organization;

113. Requests the Secretary-General to make further concerted efforts to promote outreach programmes, such as traineeships and internships, and to introduce innovative methods to increase awareness of the programmes, including through partnerships with Member States, relevant international organizations and language institutions in all regions, in particular to close the wide gap of qualified candidates from Africa and from the Latin American and Caribbean region, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

114. Notes that the "African project" has the aim of establishing postgraduate university programmes in translation, conference interpreting and public service interpreting through centres of excellence on the African continent, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to report on the achievements of this project;

115. Also notes the difficulties in identifying and retaining qualified language professionals and the need to replenish the pool of language experts at the main duty stations, particularly New York and Nairobi, in order to prevent further negative impact on the capacity of the Secretariat to provide services in the six official languages of the United Nations;

116. Welcomes the efforts made by the Secretary-General to raise awareness among all Member States and the general public of career opportunities in conference services, including through the increased use of social media;

117. Notes the update provided by the Secretary-General on the pilot project related to the outposting to Vienna of translators from the French Translation Service in New York, and requests the Secretary-General to provide to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session further updates on this matter, including on the quality of services, a cost-benefit analysis, information on workload-sharing and lessons learned;

118. Notes with appreciation the positive experience with language traineeships in training young professionals and in attracting them to the United Nations, while enhancing the pool of qualified language professionals in language combinations that are critical for succession-planning purposes, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts in this regard;

119. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to improve and strengthen his initiatives related to training and replenishing the language capacity of the Organization, including through the outreach programmes, in order to ensure sufficient capacity to address the interpretation and translation requirements of the Organization;

120. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to liaise with permanent missions to identify outreach opportunities with universities, educational institutions and language learning centres located worldwide in order to ensure the continued availability of high-quality professional language services in the six official languages of the United Nations;

121. Further requests the Secretary-General to continue to improve and expand the list of universities having memorandums of understanding with the United Nations, ensuring the inclusion of universities, educational institutions and language learning centres located in all geographical regions, whenever possible;

122. Requests the Secretary-General to refrain from making any change of a substantive nature to agreed texts of both draft and adopted resolutions and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-second session;

123. Recalls section IV of its resolution 69/274 A, and requests the Secretary-General to keep the working conditions of interpreters under review.

(Footnotes to Table A)

[a] The languages in which interpretation will be provided are indicated. Languages in which translation and meeting records will be provided vary according to the rules of procedure applicable to the body concerned and, in the case of some working groups and similar bodies, according to the actual requirements when these are less than would be provided under the rules of procedure.

[b] Conference services are funded from outside the regular budget of the United Nations.

[c] Treaty body.

[d] In accordance with paragraph 30 of General Assembly resolution 68/268, a maximum of three official working languages for interpretation will be allocated for the work of the human rights treaty bodies, with the inclusion, on an exceptional basis, of a fourth official language, when necessary to facilitate communication among the members, as determined by the committee concerned, taking into account that these measures will not constitute a precedent, given the special nature of the treaty bodies, and without prejudice to the right of each State party to interact with the treaty bodies in any of the six official languages of the United Nations.

[e] Pursuant to paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 56/242, and as decided by the Assembly previously, United Nations intergovernmental bodies are requested to avoid holding meetings on Orthodox Good Friday, which in 2017 falls on 14 April.

[f] In accordance with paragraph (h) of decision 19/32 of the Governing Council of UNEP, the Committee of Permanent Representatives shall consist of the representatives of all States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies, and the European Union, accredited to UNEP, whether based in Nairobi or elsewhere.

[g] The United Nations Office at Nairobi prepares meeting reports (note-taking, compiling and editing) on behalf of the substantive secretariats of the meetings it services. These reports are substantive in nature and differ from other forms of meeting records prepared by the Secretariat.

[h] Meetings from 13 to 17 February, 6 to 17 March, 24 July and 28 to 30 August 2017 are entitled to conference services.

[i] For plenary meetings only.

[j] In accordance with resolution 19/1 of the Governing Council of UN-Habitat, the Committee of Permanent Representatives shall be open to all Permanent Representatives of States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies that are accredited to UN-Habitat.

[k] Pursuant to paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 69/250, United Nations bodies at Headquarters and other duty stations where the Day of Vesak is observed are invited to avoid holding meetings on the Day of Vesak, which in 2017 is expected to fall on 11 May.

[l] In accordance with the relevant oral statement of programme budget implications issued when the Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management was established in 2011, the Committee can hold its annual session in New York only during the "low activity" periods, i.e., either in early January or in August. If an annual session is held outside the "low activity" periods in New York, interpretation services can be provided only on an "as available" basis.

[m] The Group of Experts meets every other year. In years when a United Nations conference on the standardization of geographical names is held, it meets on dates immediately preceding the opening date of the conference and immediately following the closing date of the conference.

[n] Pursuant to paragraph 7 of General Assembly resolution 69/250, United Nations bodies at Headquarters and other duty stations where Diwali is observed are invited to avoid holding meetings on Diwali, which in 2017 falls on 19 October.

[o] Pursuant to paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 69/250, United Nations bodies at Headquarters and other duty stations where Gurpurab is observed are invited to avoid holding meetings on Gurpurab, which in 2017 is expected to fall on 21 November.

[p] Subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

[q] Verbatim records are provided for plenary meetings of the General Assembly and its First Committee.

[f] The forty-fifth session will be held outside the Headquarters premises with no conference services to be provided by the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management.

[g] Conference services will be provided from those allocated to the General Assembly.

[h] Open to the participation of all interested States members of UNCTAD (UNCTAD resolution 80 (III), para. 9).

[i] Pursuant to the request contained in operative paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 70/232, it is understood that all issues related to the high-level event, including its date, format, organization and scope, are yet to be determined. Accordingly, in the absence of modalities for the meeting, it is not possible at the present time to estimate the potential costs implications of the requirements for meetings and documentation. Upon the taking of a decision on the modalities, format and organization of the meeting, the Secretary-General will submit the relevant costs of such requirements in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly. Furthermore, the date of the meeting will have to be determined in consultation with the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management.
